MEET THE PRESIDENTIAL AND VICE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEES

AND THEIR WIVES

The Foggy Bottom Association is fortunate in having as active members Dick and Pam Palco, of 25th Street. They have lived in the area for about six years.

Dick, who is our nominee for President for the 1973-74 term, is a Studies Analyst for the Department of Defense at the Pentagon. Before working for the Army, he was with ITT-Gilfillan for about 13 years, in ground control approach radar.

Photography is his hobby, and he takes the subject shots from which his wife, Pam, paints her pictures. He also does her picture framing.

Pam Palco, our FBNews Staff artist, hails from London, England. Although she had no formal training before coming to the United States, she had always loved to paint. Since living in this country, she has been studying with James V. Cupoli, at the Cupoli Studio of Art—about 8 years.

Her favorite painting subjects are in the Foggy Bottom area, and her pictures were very popular at our last Art Show.

Mark Plaisted, our nominee for Vice President, and his wife, Alice, came from Everett, Washington to Foggy Bottom 10 years ago, and have lived on H Street since then.

Mark, a writer, editor, and retired Civil Service employee, has been very active in civic and service organizations. He is the Foggy Bottom Assemblyman to the Executive Committee of the District of Columbia Bicentennial Assembly.

Alice, whose photographs have been appearing in the FBNews for the past several months, is employed by the U.S. Government as a photographer and photo-technician. Her entries in portrait photography have won a number of national and international awards.

The FBNews is very pleased to have such "pros" as Pam and Alice on its staff.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Nominees for 1973-74 officers are: President, Dick Palco; Vice President, Mark Plaisted; Administrative Assistant, Margaret Culhane; Treasurer, Jim Murphy; Executive Committee: Bill Buchanan, Anne Lomas, Eleanor Becker, Ken Durham, Dr. Bernard Kirshbaum, Dennis Williams. Nominations from the floor are invited—please obtain the permission of the nominee.

“SALUTE TO THREE FRIENDS”

Except for a brief business meeting for elections, the June meeting will be a salute to Fathers Abbott, Richards and Martin, who have done so much for our neighborhood SEE STORY ON PAGE 3. It will be a party atmosphere, so come and enjoy yourselves. Entertainment will be provided by Tom and Leslie Gosselin who will sing and play guitar.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Commissioner of the District of Columbia has ordered a public hearing to be held in the Department of Commerce Auditorium, 14th and E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. on Monday, June 25, 1973, at 7:30 P.M., to afford interested parties an opportunity to appear and present their views and recommendations on proposed revisions of the Water Quality Standards of the District of Columbia and on proposed 1974 Water Pollution Control Plan for the District of Columbia Waterways.

The proposed revisions of the water quality standards would increase the minimum required dissolved oxygen for sections of the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers and would assign a recreational use to Oxon Run in accordance with Section 303(a)(1) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972.

The water pollution control plan to be submitted to the Environmental Protection Agency in accordance with Section 106(f)(3) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972, outlines a program for the prevention, reduction, and elimination of pollution of District of Columbia waterways.

Individuals and representatives of organizations wishing to be heard at this public hearing are requested to furnish their names, addresses, telephone number, and the organization they represent, if any, and the approximate amount of time required to testify, in writing to the Executive Secretary, D.C., Room 528 District Building, Washington, D.C. 20004, not later than the close of business on June 20, 1973, so that their names may be placed on the list of witnesses.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING (CONT'D)

Others present at the hearing who wish to be heard may do so after those on the witness list have been called and heard. Speakers are requested to limit their comments to ten minutes. Written statements, in lieu of personal appearance or oral presentation, may be submitted for inclusion in the record which will remain open until June 29, 1973.

Persons interested in reviewing these proposals in detail are invited to examine them at:

1. Bureau of Air and Water Quality Control (629-3748) Room 310 - 25 K Street, N.E.; 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. - Monday through Friday.

2. Environmental Health Administration (629-3423) Room 721 - 801 North Capitol Street, N.E.; 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. - Monday through Friday.

3. Department of Environmental Services (629-3415) Room 309 - 415 12th Street, N.W.; 8:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. - Monday through Friday.

4. Office of the Secretariat (629-4401) Room 528 - District Building; 8:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. - Monday through Friday.

5. Martin Luther King Memorial Library, Washingtonian Division; 901 G Street, N.W. - 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. - Monday through Friday; 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. - Saturday; 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. - Sunday.

REMINDER

All copy for the Foggy Bottom News should be sent to the West End Library, 24th & L Sts., N.W., attention Copy Editor. The deadline for each monthly issue is usually the first Sunday in every month, but it is printed in every issue in the Masthead on page 2.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A newly-formed local chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons warmly invites anyone over 55 to its meetings, held on the second Friday of each month. Time: 1p.m. Place: by courtesy of its minister, the Church of the Pilgrims at 22nd and P Streets. Come and introduce yourself to its President, Mrs. Blanche Heston.

AARP by its local chapters covers the whole country and finds out about the needs of especially retired people. Their local ideas can go to "District Committees" and then to the National Committee. This has the ear of Congress, and since people over 65 in the U.S. now number more than 20 million, being thus one of the larger minorities, though not yet one of the noisy ones, Congress listens.

AARP by its group power has already secured privileges for its members, for example in health, life, car insurance, in medical purchases and travel arrangements. It maintains a local center giving courses and lectures for older people interested in continued learning. And you only need to lift a phone if you have problems with income tax, consumer goods, or with anything else it might help with. But it also encourages its members to help others. So you will find many members in community programs such as "meals on wheels", providing transport for the disabled and so on.

Membership fees are nominal: $2 for the national body, and $2 for the local one. All one can lose is one's isolation.

W. A. Wood, a Foggy Bottom member.

FATHERS ABBOTT AND RICHARDS RETIRE; FATHER MARTIN TO ST. GEORGE'S

REV. F. EVERETT ABBOTT, Rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church on 23rd Street, retired this month, and will move in early July to Charlottesville, Va.

Father Abbott entered the ministry in his fifties after a successful career in the business world. His first Washington assignment was as assistant rector of St. John's at Lafayette Square at the time of the civil rights march in 1963. St. John's was a rallying point for civil rights workers at that time, and Father Abbott became involved in the cause.

In 1965 he became Associate Rector of St. Mary's, and in addition served as Chaplain of George Washington University. He later was named Rector.

During his tenure here, Father Abbott has been active in the FBA, serving as Vice President and as a Board member. It must be mentioned that during one period, his service was "above and beyond." The FBA Board met with some regularity on Sunday afternoons during the fall to draft new bylaws; Father Abbott reluctantly gave up viewing the football games to do his duty. Others will remember his service as FBA parliamentarian and the occasion when he quietly and calmly walked toward an unruly attendee at an FBA meeting, causing the unruly to become "ruly." And through his and St. Mary's cooperation, the play school in the area found a happy home.

Father Abbott and his wife, Jean, will reside in Charlottesville near his daughter, son-in-law and five grandchildren. Immediate travel plans include New England for the summer, and a trip to Mrs. Abbot's home in New Zealand in the fall. When they are settled, they hope to have friends visit them—Charlottesville is only two hours away, they say.

REV. JAMES RICHARDS retired June 1 as Rector of St. Paul's Parish, 2430 K Street, after 24 years of service to the church and the diocese. After a brief vacation, he has returned to the church to serve temporarily as Priest in Charge until a new rector is chosen.

Father Richards was born in Massapequa, L.I., New York, attended Columbia University and graduated from General Theological Seminary. Prior to assignment to St. Paul's, he served at St. Stephen's in Providence, R.I., Trinity Church in Princeton, N.J., and Grace Church in Merchantville, N.J.

During his 24 years at St. Paul's, he has been active in diocesan work, serving on the Standing Committee and the Committee on Canons, and is said to be an expert in canons and canon law. He is also said to have played a role in influencing and sponsoring an exceptional number of vocations to the seminary, approximately one for every year of his St. Paul's ministry.

He has been named Rector Emeritus of St. Paul's, and intends to stay in the Washington area.

His friends and parishioners wish him a busy and fulfilling retirement, and the FBA adds its wishes to that, and its thanks for St. Paul's hospitality for FBA meetings and other events.

REV. RICHARD MARTIN, Senior Curate and Associate Rector of St. Paul's Parish, was named Rector of St. George's Church, 2nd & U Streets, N.W., effective June 15.

Father Martin is a native of Philadelphia, and graduated from Penn State and the Virginia Theological Seminary. Since his ordination in 1962, he has served as Chaplain at Penn State and assistant rector of St. Andrew's Church in State College, Pa., and in several other posts. He came to St. Paul's in 1966 as a part-time assistant, also serving as Chaplain at GWU. His work in the diocese includes secretary of the Standing Committee, membership on the Commissions on the Ministry, Liturgy, World Mission, and the Task Force on the Role of Women in the Church.

Father Martin's church and community activities are numerous, and he served as an officer and Board member of the Foggy Bottom Association for several years. He was also helpful each time the FBA Block Party was held behind St. Paul's—especially his intercession for good weather which almost always prevailed!

Father Martin's friends in Foggy Bottom wish him the best in his new post.

JOHN GIGRICH ORDAINED

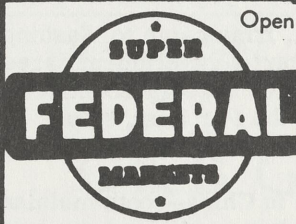

On May 12 Foggy Bottom resident John P. Gigrich was ordained to the Catholic priesthood by Bishop William Baum at St. Matthew's Cathedral.

Father Gigrich is a native of Minnesota, and received his M.A. and Ph.D. from Catholic University. He has held full- and part-time teaching positions at CU, Georgetown and GWU. He recently retired from the Department of Defense, where he served as intelligence management specialist in the Office of the Secretary.

He was elected the first president of the St. Stephen's Parish Council and served for two years in that position. He was also an officer in the West End Laymen's Association. In 1970 he was received into the lay diaconate of the Archdiocese of Washington, and later entered the seminary.

His first Mass at St. Stephen's was celebrated at 8:00 p.m. on May 12, followed by a reception in the church hall. Attending were priests formerly assigned to St. Stephens, and representatives of the other Foggy Bottom churches. He has been assigned to Immaculate Conception Church at 8th & N Streets, N.W.

FOGGY DOINGS

There is a lot of news in this issue concerning new roles for the men who have ministered to Foggy Bottom. There have also been changes at St. Stephen's, with the departure of Father ARNOLD DE PORTER to St. Gabriel's Church, and Father DAVID PRICE to his home in New Zealand. New arrivals, to assist Pastor Michael Farrell, are Fathers ARMANDO JIMENEZ and HARRY JACOBS. We'll tell you more about them in a future issue.

A new Eye Street resident is BILL SPENCER, who hails from Boston. Bill is an attorney with an accounting firm, and already is showing green thumb tendencies. Another gardener in that block is JOAN SILVER, who has lived in the Bottom but is the new tenant of the Hagemeyer house. (The more gardeners we have, the better!)

Recently a publication came across my desk from the prestigious American Enterprise Institute with a familiar name as one of the authors. It was a weighty volume entitled "Increasing the Supply of Medical Personnel—Needs and Alternatives," and was written by Charles Stewart and CORA SIDDAYAO. Cora, a native of the Philippines, was a teaching fellow at George Washington University when she co-authored this AET Evaluative Study, and FBNews readers will remember her "moonlighting" on the News during the period she lived in Foggy Bottom.

Attention artists and artisans: the writer recently received word from a sorority sister who is seeking well-made, unusual home accessories for sale on consignment in her Florida shop. If interested, contact Jean Carbia, 1920 S.E. 18th Street, Pompano Beach, Florida. The art shows indicate there are a lot of creative people in our area!

IRMA GOODWIN MOVES

Mrs. Irma Goodwin, Snows Court resident since 1962, left for Clearwater, Fla., on June 2, to take possession of the condominium apartment which she recently purchased there.

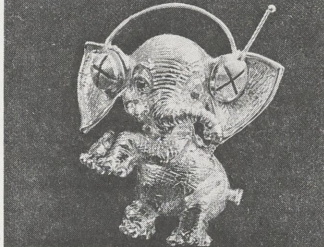

A native of Norfolk, Va., Irma came to Washington during World War II to start a government career that took her to posts in nine foreign countries in Europe, South America, and the Far East, before she took early retirement and settled in Foggy Bottom eleven years ago.

Her favorite posts were in China—both mainland and Taiwan—and Japan; and her garden and the decor of her home reflected her fondness for oriental art and antiquities.

The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Crater, Jr., are now in residence at No. 12 Snows Court. The FBA welcomes them to the Bottom and wishes Irma Goodwin good luck and happiness in her new home.

FOGGY BOTTOM FARMER

SPRAY NOW FOR SCALE

Spray now and at weekly intervals for a total of three sprayings for the Wax Scale damaging many Foggy Bottom trees and shrubs.

The insects emerge from the chalk-like scale (drawing below) during the latter part of June. Invisible then, but soon enlarging, they will appear like the tiny cameo shown in the enlarged circle of the sketch.

Spray with Malathion or Diazinon (Spectracide) at two teaspoons per gallon of water completely covering the bark, branches, and twigs. Repeat: three sprayings at weekly intervals are necessary!

July Notes: Day lilies, iris, madonna lilies, and fall-blooming crocus ordered now can be planted as soon as they arrive. Outdoor tubbed and potted plants suffer much from afternoon heat. Mist spray them thoroughly on hot days. Discarded wave-set bottles have a "press-down" plunger that forces out a fine spray just right for wetting foliage.

For late bloom plant "glad" bulbs by July 15th.

CAPITAL HIKING CLUB SCHEDULE OF HIKES

June-July-August 1973

GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership:

The Club is a nonprofit group and the public is invited to join on all trips listed in the bulletin.

Reservations and Meeting Place:

Unless otherwise indicated, all trips leave from 1424 K St., N.W., at the time specified in the bulletin. Reservations are required for all outings, and should be made with one of the leaders by Friday evening preceding the hike. Hikes go on—rain or shine—so do please notify the leader if you find you must cancel.

Expenses:

All hikers who wish to receive the Club's quarterly bulletin of activities must pay $1.00 per calendar year to the Treasurer, or to any officer or leader of the Club.

Transportation expenses are listed in the bulletin for each activity. Note that entrance fees to parks, beaches, etc., are extra.

A registration fee of $1.00 per person is charged those furnishing their own transportation to the starting point of an outing. However, except for those trips where private cars are used exclusively, all hikers are urged to use the chartered bus to avoid confusion and to support their Club and its leaders.

Club emblems may be purchased for $.75 each from one of the Club's officers.

What to Bring and Wear:

Bring sufficient food and liquids for a full day's outing as the Club does not plan refreshment stops.

Sturdy hiking boots or comfortable shoes are a necessity since some hiking is over rough terrain; also, an extra sweater, dry socks and rain gear. Slacks are recommended for the ladies, and a knapsack is most helpful. Sneakers are seldom appropriate footwear, and in some cases are dangerous.

NOTICE:

You are responsible for your own safety, and must assume all risk and liability on all outings with the Capital Hiking Club. Its leaders, officers and representatives shall not be liable for any injuries, loss or damage, to persons and/or property, direct or consequential, arising out of any trips and/or activities of the Capital Hiking Club.

Sun. July 15--Rehoboth Beach, Delaware

Leaders: Jerry Williamson - 521-7720

Paul Van Order - 536-4378

Time: 8:00 a.m. for chartered bus. Cost is $6.50; bathhouse fee extra.

Description: Join us for a day's outing at this lovely ocean resort. After a fast trip—NO STOPS EN-ROUTE—we will have oceans of time to surf bathe, stroll along the boardwalk, shop, or eat in the famous restaurants; or just sit and breathe fresh air! Early return.

Sun. July 22--Cacapon State Park, W.Va.

Leaders: Dan Risley - 363-1182

Phylliss Goldenberg - 965-2511

Time: 8:00 a.m. for chartered bus. Cost is $6.00; bathhouse fee $.75.

Description: Visit wild, wonderful W.Va., where George Washington once hiked! The Cacapon area has been a popular scenic and resort area for 200 years. 2 hikes are planned—a mountain hike along the Cacapon Ridge for at least 6 miles; and a shorter, less strenuous walk. Hikers will have time for a swim in the lake. Picnic tables in shaded areas are available; a snack bar near the lake; and a restaurant at the lodge, featuring W.b.g.Va. food and warm hospitality.
